RS LITERACY™

Raising Standards across the curriculum

Would you like to take part in research* linked to Oxford University, to achieve literacy support for every student in every class across the curriculum?

We are offering your school the opportunity to use the newly named trugs Plus programme— RS Literacy at HALF PRICE to achieve 'every teacher a teacher of literacy' and thereby raise the literacy standards of all your students within school.

The programme provides every teacher with individually differentiated topic lists and literacy activities for every student. There is assessment and thinking/writing speed and much more. The programme automatically provides evidence and evaluation since it is linked to SIMS. There is a great deal more to show you.

Read Successfully has created RS Literacy – Raising Standards across the curriculum and is making the programme available at half price for a one-year site licence (different pricing according to school size) together with ✔ A full set of trugs boxes to use as an intervention programme delivered by the school's Learning Support staff. Value £450

✔ Access for all subject teachers to online resources which supports literacy linked to specific curriculum areas

✔ Full training for staff in the school setting

Pricing for one-year site licence to include the above if on Oxford Research*:

£1,000 for PRUs

* Oxford University have been looking at preliminary findings from a study conducted over the last couple of years. These findings suggest that schools having used this programme is working right across the curriculum. Oxford University are looking to scale this up to provide more in-depth research and are putting a bid together for a grant. Subject to it being successful this will enable funding to support the research, the form of which will not be known until the result of the bid.
